OJSC “Company “M.video” (“M.video” or the “Group”), one of the Russia's leading consumer electronics retailers (RTS, MICEX: MVID) announces today its audited consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) for the full year ended 31 December 2008.

“M.video” sales in 2008 grew by 37% up to Russian roubles (RuR) 84,4 billion. The Group's IFRS net revenue in 2008 increased to RuR 71,486 million from RuR 52,317 million in 2007. Retail revenue (the sale of goods and services including internet sales) increased by 41% up to RuR 68,131 million (80,395 million with VAT). Growth in revenues was driven by the Group's expansion and healthy double-digit like-for-like sales growth.

“M.video” IFRS gross profit increased 49% in 2008 reaching RuR 17,876 million. The Group's gross margin improved to 25% compared to 22.9% in 2007. Improvement of the gross margin was achieved from increased scale of operations and growth in sales of high margin products and services.

The Group's EBITDA increased by 38% and reached RuR 3,596 million with the EBITDA margin increasing to 5.03% in 2008 from 4.98% in 2007.

M.video IFRS net profit for 2008 grew to RuR 1,256 million demonstrating 94% increase as compared to 2007.

Alexander Tynkovan, President and CEO of M.video commented on FY 2008 financial statements: “We achieved those positive benchmarks in 2008 due to the high sales volumes as well as focus on the growth of the high margin products and services share. In the reported period M.video became the fastest growing consumer electronic retail chain in Russia while building strong financial position and significantly improving its net debt. Today M.video is a definite leader of the Russian consumer electronic retail sector, demonstrating positive development of the major financial indicators and strengthening its competitive market positions”.
